Chapter 204: The Twelve Divine Beings' Gaze

The Twelve Divine Beings stood as the supreme rulers of their respective domains, each entrusted with overseeing the vast inner worlds and realms under their command. These beings were more than just powerful entities—they were the very architects of their worlds, weaving the fabric of existence within their dominions.

The Divine Triad—Ashborn, seated in Absolute Castle; Sung Jin-Woo, at Umbra Citadel; and Sung Su-Ho, within Eternis Draconis—remained at the pinnacle of authority, their influence stretching across the cosmos.

The Duo Dragons—Sung Ye-Jun, at Inferna Draconis, and Sung Ye-Rin, within Lunaris Citadel—commanded the fiery and lunar domains, their power a blend of ancient dragon might.

The Seven Dragons—Sung Ha-Young at Draconis Sanctum, Sung Jun-Ho at Aetheris Dominion, Sung Hyun-Joo at Celestium Haven, Sung Ri-Hye at Lunaris Asylum, Sung Kyun-Rae at Inferna Dominion, Sung Ji-Ae at Mystica Enclave, and Sung Da-Hyun at Tempest Keep—watched over the realms with pride, each responsible for safeguarding the balance of their respective dominions.

Together, they watched their inner worlds with satisfaction, knowing that each realm was a testament to their power, their vigilance, and their absolute control over the fabric of reality.
